Water Your Mind, Make Waves, and Make a Splash with Summer Reading Programs

The American Red Cross (ARC) and the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) have partnered with the Collaborative Summer Library Program (CSLP) to help support summer reading. Both organizations have a strong "water" emphasis and will conduct FREE programs at public libraries. To find an American Red Cross chapter near you, go to: <http://www.redcross.org>. Click here to see information from ARC showing many of the Water Safety Presentations, storytime offerings, and educational resource kits available. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers locations near you may be found at: <http://www.corpslakes.us>. Click here to see information about the "Lake and Library" print kits that are available. There are also interactive stories and games on-line at: <http://www.bobber.info>

PNLA Leads 2010

The Pacific Northwest Library Association is holding its fourth Leadership Institute in October, PNLA Leads 2010. They have opened up applications to library staff in non-PNLA member Western Council states. The deadline to apply is June 4. More information and an application form are available online at <http://www.pnla.org/institute/index.htm>

Books For Children Grant: Libri Foundation

The Libri Foundation is a nationwide non-profit organization which donates new, quality, hardcover children's books to small, rural public libraries in the United States through its BOOKS FOR CHILDREN program. Only libraries within the 50 states are eligible to apply. The application is available at <http://www.librifoundation.org/apps.html>.

Online EBSCO Training Continues

EBSCO is providing online training just for Arizona libraries. Each month, two webinars will focus on various EBSCO databases and support resources. This month the sessions will cover resources for Public Libraries and Teachers. Please visit our Event Registration website for registration links and the attached Continuing Education Summary highlighting the training sessions.

How Libraries Stack Up: 2010

This new report examines the economic, social and cultural impact of libraries in the United States. As the current economic environment is impacting library budgets and library usage is increasing, particular attention is paid to the role that libraries play in providing assistance to job-seekers and support for small businesses. To download report, go to: <http://www.oclc.org/reports/stackup/default.htm>

LDD Project Updates

Why Arizona?

Why Arizona? is an online collection of materials describing the history of migration to, from and within Arizona. Materials are derived from special collections of Arizona State University, the University of Arizona and Northern Arizona University. Why Arizona? appears with the generous support of Institute of Museum and Library Services funds distributed by the Arizona State Library Archives and Public Records, and it is designated an official Arizona Centennial Legacy Project by the Arizona Historical Advisory Commission. For more information, please visit <http://www.whyarizona.org/>.
