

NOONTIME SPEAKER SERIES

ARIZONA STATE LIBRARY, ARCHIVES AND PUBLIC RECORDS

2012

January
12th

The Centennial Legislature. Capitol Museum, Historic Senate Chamber, 3rd floor. 12-1 pm.

February
9th

Arizona Digital Newspaper Program. Yun Carroll, project manager for the Arizona Digital Newspaper Program, will discuss the project, Arizona's progress in digitizing historical newspapers and how to use the Chronicling America and ADNP sites for genealogical and historical research. Polly Rosenbaum Archives and History meeting room. 12-1 pm.

March
8th

Preparing for the 1940 Census. Featuring Raylene Morrow Junkins. Polly Rosenbaum State Archives Building meeting room 12-1 pm.

April
12th

Lisa Heidinger, author of this year's ONEBOOKAZ adult selection. Carnegie Center. 12-1 pm.

May
10th

Doing Foreign Family History Research Using the Internet. Steve Packer, of the Mesa Regional Family History Center, will give the presentation. Polly Rosenbaum Archives and History meeting room. 12:00 to 1:00 pm.

June
14th

Oasis – Frank Lloyd Wright’s Arizona Capitol Design. View the model for Frank Lloyd Wright’s Capitol building. Capitol Museum, Historic Senate Chamber, 12-1 pm.

July
12th

Author Frank Barrios will give a presentation on the historic Pioneer Cemetery. Carnegie Center. 12-1 pm.

August
9th

Pat Knight Stevenson, co-author of Arizona Centennial Legacy Project Skirting Traditions: Arizona Women Writers and Journalists 1912-2012, will discuss the project, which includes profiles on noteworthy Arizona writers, including Angela Hutchison Hammer and Erma Bombeck. Carnegie Center. 12-1 pm.

September

13th

Author Tom Van Dyke will give a presentation of his works, including A Cowboy Christmas. Carnegie Center. 12-1 pm.

October

11th

Program tba. Capitol Museum, Historic Senate Chamber. 12-1 pm.

November

8th

Program tba. Polly Rosenbaum Archives and History meeting room. 12-1 pm.

December

7th

Pearl Harbor Observance. Capitol Museum, Historic Senate Chamber, 12-1 pm.

